

UNITED STATES
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20549

November 20, 2013

By ECF

The Honorable Kevin P. Castel
United States District Judge
United States Courthouse
500 Pearl St.
New York, NY 10007-1312

Re: Arjent LLC et al. v. SEC, 13 civ. 7319 (KPC) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Castel:

We represent the Securities and Exchange Commission in the above-captioned matter. In light of the Court's November 18, 2013 order, we respectfully request that the Court consider the Commission's opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction also as a motion to dismiss under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(b)(1) and (6). We do not seek additional briefing at this time and apologize for any confusion or inconvenience our pre-motion letter of November 18, 2013 caused.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Melinda Hardy", is written above the printed name.

Melinda Hardy

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Sarah Hancur", is written above the printed name.

Sarah Hancur

cc: Andrew J. Goodman, Esq. (by email)